

Alert: Fruit Fly Quarantine

September 10, 2015

Growing areas in Homestead and the Redlands have been affected by an oriental fruit fly quarantine. Harvesting and packing of items like avocados, starfruit, dragon fruit, etc. have been suspended which will make supplies limited.

We appreciate your patience and continued support. We will keep you updated on this situation. If you have any questions please contact your Sales Representative.